

HEAVENLY HOSTED SCENTS

Natural artisan beauty creations for the body and senses.

I love helping others enjoy a more natural organic way of cleansing, moisturizing and healing their body's skin from head to toe. My products are made of natural ingredients; mostly vegan, although I do use bees wax and some lard in a few items.

As the owner/designer and soap maker of Heavenly Hosted Scents, I want your experience with my products to be a refreshing, invigorating one that will leave you satisfied and returning with great reviews.
